Section A

Introduction

Data held by Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone will be held lawfully and for the retention periods set out in section B of this policy document.

This document refers to:

- Written Documents
- Spreadsheets
- Hardcopy case notes and files
- Database entries
- Images
- Recordings
- Emails
- Text messages
- Supervision notes
- Visits to the organisations website
- Social media communication

Aim and Purpose

The purpose of this document is to ensure that Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone has a framework that ensures the rights and freedom of individuals in relation to their personal data (Article 1) and adheres to best practice in the management of client information and business records.

Information Governance sets out the way in which information collated by an organisation is managed and ensures that any information collected;

- is the right information
- is in the right place
- at the right time
- with the right people
- for the right reasons

This is a live document and may be updated at any time to reflect changes in law or growth of the business, and therefore should be revisited regularly to check for any updates. Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone is fully committed to ensuring clients' privacy and data protection rights.

For the purpose of this policy Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone is the named Data Protection Officer/Controller and Head of Organisation.

Information Governance Framework Principles for Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone

- 1. Assessment needs for Information Governance (IG) Training have been identified and fully met. Inspired to Change Maidstone has been advised by Inspired to Change who undertook a 75 minute GDPR CPD Course provided by the Clinical Hypnotherapy School (www.clinicalhypnotherapyschool.com). Refresher training is completed every two years.
- 2. Any changes to the business processes and/or operations will be planned and will comply with the framework to ensure any risks to personal and sensitive information are minimised.
- 3. Any data collected is solely for the purpose of providing a person-centred service to an individual client.
- 4. The Caldicott Principles are used to provide guidance in best practice when handling personal data, alongside the ICO's Office Codes of Practice.
(<https://www.igt.hscic.gov.uk/Caldicott2Principles.aspx>)
- 5. All technology [Microsoft Office products including Outlook] used to store or facilitate information and communication is maintained according to the Data Retention Policy for Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone.
- 6. All records are identifiable, locatable, retrievable, and intelligible according to regulations set out by GDPR.
- 7. It is the responsibility of the Data Controller to ensure sufficient resources are in place to prioritise adhering to Data Protection Legislation in the business.
- 9. Any electronic devices where personal or sensitive, confidential information is held will be password protected. Individual documents stored electronically will also contain individual passwords.
- 10. Procedures have been put in place to ensure the General Data Protection Regulations are met. These can be found in Section C.

Section B

Privacy Notice: Use of information

In accordance with this data retention schedule there may be occasions when data is not destroyed due to ongoing investigation, litigation or enquiry. The data will be deleted upon confirmation that it is no longer required.

On some occasions anonymised personal data will be retained whereby a client has provided a testimonial for use on the organisations website. When data is non-identifiable GDPR law is no longer applicable. [Non-identifiable means that if this data was left on a bus, no one, including the data subject would be able to identify that this data was relating to them.]

- Personal information is collated and stored in hardcopy in a locked filing cabinet behind a locked door.
- Any document containing personal data will state “Official-sensitive, private and confidential” clearly.
- All emails will contain a privacy statement.

Under the General Data Protection and Retention (2018) legislation, regarding how your personal data is processed, all individuals have;

- the right to be informed;
- the right of access;
- the right to rectification;
- the right to erasure;
- the right to restrict processing;
- the right to data portability;
- the right to object; and
- the right not to be subject to automated decision-making including profiling.

Please note that Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone does not use automated decision-making tools, including profiling.

Website visitors

When an individual visits www.inspiredtochange.biz, we use Google analytics who are considered a third party service, to collect information about what visitors do when they click on our website, e.g. which page they visit the most. Google analytics only collect non-identifiable data which means I or they cannot identify who is visiting. Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone will always be transparent when it comes to collecting personal data and will be clear about how that data is processed.

Section C

Data Breach

All personal and sensitive data held by Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone is held securely. Electronic data stored on a computer is stored on a password protected computer, in password protected documents held on the C: Drive of the computer. This supports the ability to retrieve data in the event of faults. Hardcopy data is held securely in a locked cabinet behind a locked door.

In the case of a data breach Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone shall comply with the regulations set out under Article 33 of the GDPR;

1. In the case of a personal data breach, the data controller shall without undue delay and, where feasible, not later than 72 hours after having become aware of it, notify the personal data breach to the ICO, unless the personal data breach is unlikely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of the individual. Where the notification to the ICO is not made within 72 hours, it shall be accompanied by reasons for the delay.

2. The notification referred to in paragraph 1 shall at least:

(a) describe the nature of the personal data breach including where possible, the approximate number of data subjects concerned and the categories (e.g. sessions notes, phone numbers) and approximate number of personal data records concerned;

(b) communicate the name and contact details of the data controller where more information can be obtained;

(c) describe the likely consequences of the personal data breach;

(d) describe the measures taken or proposed to be taken by the controller to address the personal data breach, including, where appropriate, measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects.

4. Where, and in so far as, it is not possible to provide the information at the same time, the information may be provided in phases without undue further delay.

5. The controller shall document any personal data breaches, comprising the facts relating to the personal data breach, its effects and the remedial action taken. That documentation shall enable the supervisory authority to verify compliance with this Article.

6. In the event that a data breach will likely cause a risk to the rights and freedoms of client data, the data controller must communicate the nature of the breach in clear, concise and plain language, to the client/s involved, without delay.

7. If a breach occurs but the data controller has gone to appropriate lengths to protect the data held on the client (e.g. password encryption of electronic files), or if the data controller has taken subsequent action to prevent the risk (e.g. immediately blocking a mobile device) then notifying the client will not be required.

Subject Access Request

A Subject Access Requests (SAR) permits individuals to request a copy of their personal information.

A SAR must be acted upon within one month, at the most within two months, any longer and reasonable reason must be provided. There are no fees unless there is a disproportionate fee to the organisation for sending out the information. Application for SAR should be held alongside session records, unless application was made after six years of the end of treatment. In which case the SAR will be held for a further two years after closure of SAR.

INSPIRED TO CHANGE

A SAR request will include information we hold about you, Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone will:

- give you a description of it;
- tell you why we are holding it;
- tell you who it could be disclosed to; and
- let you have a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

SAR requests should be put in writing to Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone. A response may be provided informally over the telephone with your agreement, or formally by letter or email.

If any information held is noted to be incorrect an individual can request a correction be made to their own personal information. This should be made in writing to Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone.

Right to Erasure

Any person may put in a request for their personal data to be removed (the 'right to be forgotten' or the 'right to erasure'). In this instance hard copy data will be shredded using a cross shredding machine owned by the organisation and any electronic data will be permanently deleted. The client will be notified of the completion. The request for deletion of data and the confirmation of completion will be held securely until eight years after the request was made.

Complaints

Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone hopes to meet the highest quality standards when processing personal and sensitive data. Complaints can help identify areas for improvement and therefore Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone would welcome you raising any concerns you have.

These Information Governance Policy documents were created to be as transparent and understandable as possible. It will not be completely exhaustive of all aspects of data collection. If you would like further information about a specific process, please contact Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone.

If you feel you would like to make a complaint about how your personal and sensitive data is handled by Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone you can contact Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone directly. In the event that Inspired to Change Hypnotherapy Maidstone cannot resolve your complaint to your satisfaction you can contact the Information Commissioners Office on 0303 123 1113.
